Privacy and Transparency Notice

16th May 2018

Data Controller - BladeLaw is a trading name of Alexander May of 188 Stroud Road, Gloucester GL1 5LA, who is the data controller. Further contact details are available from <https://BladeLaw.co.uk/Contact>.

Purposes of Processing - Your data will be processed in order to:

- provide services under contract to you;
- provide services to others (in so far as this does not breach client confidentiality);
- comply with regulatory and other legal obligations; and
- protect BladeLaw against potential claims.

Legal Basis - Your data will be processed on the basis that BladeLaw has a legitimate interest in being able to achieve the aims of processing set out above. Where special category data is provided, the provider of the data warrants that they consent to BladeLaw processing that data or that they have obtained written consent from the data subject.

Personal Data Held - As a minimum, BladeLaw is required to positively identify its clients. This also includes positively identifying a director in the case of a corporate client. In addition, BladeLaw holds whatever information is provided to it by its clients and others. This will rarely include special category data.

Failure to Provide Data – If you fail to provide BladeLaw with the data required you will not receive services or marketing.

Data Sources - BladeLaw obtains most personal data from its clients and those who have indicated that they have an interest in BladeLaw services. BladeLaw also obtains some personal data from other correspondents. BladeLaw also collects some data from publicly available sources (e.g. Companies House).

Recipients - Any data provided by a client is treated as confidential to that client and will only be shared with others in so far as this is necessary in order to provide the services contracted for by the client, to comply with regulatory and other legal obligations and to protect BladeLaw against a potential claim. In order to provide its services, BladeLaw relies on the services of certain data processors. These include secure cloud storage for files and emails. In each case, BladeLaw ensures that data is processed in compliance with this policy.

Third Countries and Safeguards - Other than where required in order to provide services as required in individual client matters, data is rarely sent to third countries. Where it is, the relevant devices are password protected and equipped with tracking and remote wipe software. The devices are personally accompanied.

Retention Period - Data is held for six years from the end of the relevant matter or for six years where not associated with a particular matter.

Data Subject's Rights – Where relevant, you have the right (subject to client confidentiality) to:

- withdraw consent to the processing of your data;
- complain to a supervisory authority regarding the processing of your data (<https://ico.org.uk/>); and
- obtain a copy of the data held on you and to correction of any errors in that data.

Automated Decision Making – None.

Further Details – The Data Controller will provide further details of any of the above on request.
